SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATION POLICY (the “Policy”)

1. Purpose

The provisions of the Policy are intended to set out the channels and mechanisms currently in place to ensure that shareholders of the Company, including individual and institutional shareholders (collectively “Shareholders”) and, where appropriate, general investors, including prospective investors of the Company and financial analysts (collectively “Investors”), receive from the Company timely, comprehensive, consistent and understandable information on the Company (including its financial performance, strategic objectives and plans, significant developments, governance and risk profiles) and to convey their views on various matters affecting the Company, and set out the actions taken by the Company to solicit and understand the views of Shareholders and stakeholders, so as to allow Shareholders to actively interact with the Company and exercise their rights as Shareholders in an informed manner.

2. Overall Policy

- 2.1 The Board will maintain ongoing dialogues with Shareholders and Investors and will review the Policy annually to ensure that it effectively maintains high level communication with Shareholders and reflects current best practices.
- 2.2 The main channels through which the Company disseminates information to Shareholders and Investors are: The Company’s financial reports (interim and annual reports), Annual General Meeting and any other general meeting that may be held, as well as disclosures required by law and regulation available on the Company’s website (<https://www.lesso.com>) and the website of Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“HKEX”) (<https://www.hkexnews.hk>).
- 2.3 The Company will ensure effective and timely dissemination of information to Shareholders and Investors at all times. Any questions about the Policy should be addressed to the Company Secretary of the Company.

3. Communication Channels

General meeting

- 3.1 The Board is committed to maintaining constant dialogues with Shareholders, in particular direct communication with Shareholders through the Annual General Meeting or any other general meeting of the Company.

- 3.2 The Board Chairman and the Chairmen of the Audit, Remuneration and Nomination Committees (or their designated representatives) will attend the annual general meeting and other general meetings to answer questions from Shareholders.
 - 3.3 The general meeting provides an opportunity for constructive communication between the Company and Shareholders. The Company encourages Shareholders to actively attend the general meetings, fulfill their obligations, exercise their voting rights on major matters of the Company, and express their opinions on the Company's affairs. If a Shareholder is unable to attend in person, he may authorize a representative to attend, speak and vote on his behalf at the meeting.
 - 3.4 Appropriate arrangements are in place to encourage Shareholders to participate in the annual general meeting. The Company will regularly review the forms and procedures of general meetings and make appropriate changes as necessary to meet the needs of Shareholders, so as to improve their meeting experience and enhance their participation.
